

FIRST AID KIT

A well-stocked first-aid kit, kept within easy reach, is a must for every home.

Keep a first-aid kit in your home and in your car.

Also bring a first-aid kit when you travel.

What Should a First-Aid Kit Include?

- an up-to-date first-aid manual
- a list of emergency phone numbers
- sterile gauze pads of different sizes
- adhesive tape
- adhesive bandages (Band-Aids) in several sizes
- an elastic bandage
- a splint
- antiseptic wipes
- soap
- hand sanitizer
- antiseptic solution (like hydrogen peroxide)
- sterile water, saline (saltwater), or irrigation solution and a large syringe for washing cuts
- tweezers
- sharp scissors
- safety pins
- disposable instant cold packs
- alcohol wipes or ethyl alcohol
- a thermometer
- tooth preservation kit
- plastic non-latex gloves (at least 2 pairs)
- a flashlight and extra batteries
- a mouthpiece for giving CPR
- an eye shield
- eye wash solution

Keep Medicines You Might Need in Your Kit:

- antibiotic ointment
- hydrocortisone cream (1%)
- calamine lotion
- acetaminophen and ibuprofen
- an antihistamine (anti-itch medicine), like Benadryl, Zyrtec, Claritin, or store brands
- extra prescription medicines (if you're traveling)
- medicine syringes and cups

After You've Stocked Your First Aid Kit

- Read the first-aid manual so you'll understand how to use what's in your kit.
- Store first-aid kits out of children's reach but where adults can easily get them.
- Check the kits regularly. Replace missing items or anything that has expired.
- Check the flashlight batteries to make sure they work.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity. Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible state or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by: (1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights 1400 Independence Avenue, SW Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; or (2) fax: (833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442; (3) or email: program.intake@usda.gov.
